1. Please refrain from wearing perfume oils, as some of our patients are sensitive to these.
2. Please provide your practitioner with a list of any and all medications and/or supplements you are currently taking.
3. Acupuncture is a very safe medical procedure and well known for its efficacy and lack of side effects. Occasionally, bruising may occur. Do not be alarmed, but if you have questions or concerns, we encourage you to call the office.

ACUPUNCTURE INFORMED CONSENT TO TREAT

Revised 08/2016

I hereby request and consent to acupuncture treatments and other procedures within the scope of the practice of acupuncture on me (or on the patient named below, for whom I am legally responsible) by the Licensed Acupuncturist at the Chinese Acupuncture Clinic.

I understand that methods of treatment may include, but are not limited to, acupuncture, moxibustion, cupping, electrical stimulation, Tui-Na (Chinese massage), Chinese herbal medicine, and nutritional counseling.

I have been informed that acupuncture and the adjunct modalities are generally a safe method of treatment, but may have some side effects, including bruising, numbness or tingling near the treatment sites that may last a few days. Dizziness or fainting is a rare reaction that may occur.

The herbs and nutritional supplements (which are from plant, animal and mineral sources) that I have been prescribed are purchased from suppliers that meet current Good Manufacturing Practice (GMP) enforced by the United States Food and Drug Administration (USFDA). The most common side effects of herbal medicine are gas, indigestion, or loose stools. If I have any questions about my herbal prescription, those questions will be answered by a Licensed Acupuncturist at the CAC.

I understand the clinical and administrative staff may review my patient records and lab reports, but all my records will be kept confidential and will not be released without my written consent.

I will notify a CAC acupuncturist who is caring for me if I am or become pregnant.

I understand that no promises have been made to me as to the results of treatment.

By signing below, I show that I have read, or have had read to me, the above Consent to Treat, have been told about the risks and benefits of acupuncture and other procedures, and have had an opportunity to ask questions. I intend this consent form to cover the entire course of treatment for my present condition and for any future condition(s) for which I seek treatment.
